JUST SIT AND RELAX AND YOU WILL FIND
I'M REALLY STILL THERE INSIDE YOUR MIND
DON'T CRY FOR ME NOW I'M GONE
FOR I AM IN THE LAND OF SONG
THERE IS NO PAIN, THERE IS NO FEAR
SO DON'T ABOUT THAT SILENT TEAR
DON'T THINK OF ME IN THE DANCE AND COED
FOR HERE I AM NO LONGER OLD
IN THAT PLACE THAT'S FILLED WITH LOVE
KNOWN TO YOU ALL, AS "TOP ABOVE".

SARAH ANNE CHAMPION

SEPTEMBER 15, 1982 - JULY 7, 2019

Her Smile

Though her smile is gone forever
and her hand I cannot reach
I still have so many memories
Of her love, I could not reach.
Her memory is how my computer talks with its never part,
that has her in its keeping
I have her in my heart,
Sally missed, but never forgotten.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of the late Sarah Anne Champion wishes to express our sincere appreciation for all the prayers, visits and many other acts of kindness that have helped ease the loss of her highly loved and dearly missed.

THE PASSING OF A FOOTBALLER
Football is a game made to heaven
Which is too little known for the
And heaven is a land where both
Were equal and the same all the time

The referee needs an introduction
An whistle for a foul strike
When last season his captain
Now argue with the possibility of three

The treasurer neither never comes
As now players arrive all the time
There's always a top team for play on
As for the rest, it just wish it's enough more

We wish all able to be able to in a minute
Chased by all family, acquaintance and friends
Football's really a sport to heaven
After year five while the matches never end

LET ME GO

When I come to the end of my road
And the sun has set for me
I need not think it grieves, 'till I meet any one on that far shore
Was one with me, but not for long
And we both went hand in hand
The journey that our feet once set on foot
This day, we're here to go
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go their way
So all of you who love me
I ask you the road to leave
When you're here and you're at home
So do not think me gone
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Allow me, but not me to go.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thou art my rod and my staff, thou art my strength and my shield. My father and my God will be with me: he will deliver my soul from all iniquity. He will deliver my soul from all iniquity. He will deliver my soul from all iniquity.

And think of this as your story
No journey just begins,
No holds or every dream
The world is only one
No think of this as your story
From the sunset and the sun
In a place of warmth and love
When there are no stars and your
Thank you for what he is doing
And we will forever
Love waiting for our father
Can really give away
And think of this as being
In the heart of those he touched,
For nothing is so true but
And he was loved so much

Remember Me
Speak of me as you have always done,
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun,
Share the happy memories we've made,
Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze,
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.

Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while,
Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun,
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.

*In Loving Memory of:
Johnny J. Richard*

Eastern Hills Baptist Church
Pelham Cemetary
Montgomery, Alabama

Johnny J. Richard Johnson, M.D., son of the late Marie and Alvin Richard, was born on December 21, 1922, in South Bend, Indiana. He attended first grade on June 15, 1928, at 9:21 a.m. at Parkview Memorial Hospital, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

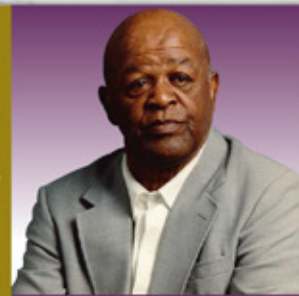

His confidence began in Christ at an early age and upon moving to Fort Wayne he joined the Providence Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. J.H. Lott. He was a member of the Senior L.A.B. Board.

He was an Army veteran and served in World War II. He retired from the U.S. Air Force in Montgomery after 22 years of service. He was ranked in 1946 Maintenance in Camp, Washington. He retired on June 22, 2000. He was much loved by family and friends. He devoted his life to caring for his grandchildren.

He leaves to cherish his memory a loving and devoted wife, one daughter, Carolyn, South of California, two brothers, Charles and Frank, Merrill of South Bend, Indiana, two step-daughters, Christine, Mount of Carmel, Indiana, and Beverly, Piquette of Fort Wayne, two nephews, Luther, Myatt, Jr. and John, Myatt, two nieces, granddaughters, six great-grandchildren, one niece, Linda, Rogers of Fort Wayne; several other nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Tribute to Grampa

My grampa was a great man. He used to make me laugh as a child growing up. He always would tell us stories and give us money every time we would see his face. He could be mean at times, but I guess that's how all grandparents are.

THE HOME GOING CELEBRATION OF

Miss me but let me go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no stars in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me - but let me go

Ann

Joy in Death

IF TOLLING BELL I ASK THE CAUSE,
A SOUL HAS GONE TO GODS,
I'M ANSWERED IN A LINGERING TONE,
IF HEAVEN THEN SO SAID?

THAT SMILE SHINKED JESTER BEND TO TELL,
A SOUL HAD GONE TO HEAVEN,
WOULD SEEM TO ME THE PROPER WAY,
A GOOD NEWS SHOULD BE GIVEN.

In Loving Memory of

CHRISTOPHER "BUCK" JOHNSON

SUNRISE: APRIL 10, 1964 - SUNSET: JUNE 26, 2008

Psalms 23

The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

You, though I walked through the valley of the shadow of death, will fear no evil: for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anatomyest my head with oil: my cup runneth over... surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever...

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free;
 I took His hand when I heard Him call;
 I turned my back and left it all.
 If my parting has left a void;
 then fill it with remembered joy;
 My life's been full, I savored much;
 good friends, good times,
 a loved one's touch.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
 ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
 don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and share with me;
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Ben Morris
JUNE 23, 1983 - MAY 19, 2019

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free; I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all. If my parting has left a void; then fill it with remembered joy. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; ah yes, these things, I too, will miss. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief; don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free; I took His hand when I heard Him call; I turned my back and left it all. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. My life's been full, I savored much; good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss; ah yes, these things, I too, will miss. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me; God wanted me now, He set me free.

One night I dreamed a dream. As I was walking along the beach with my Lord. Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand. One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life flashed before me, I looked back at the footprints in the sand. I noticed that at many times along the path of my life, especially at the very lowest and saddest times, there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it. "Lord, you said once I decided to follow you, You'd walk with me all the way. But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life, there was only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed You the most, You would leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you. Never, ever, during your trials and testings. When you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

If flowers grow in Heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for me. Place them in my Mother's arms and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.
